Internal Review process

The Internal Review process is separate from, and does not replace, the existing avenues of appeal to the Racing Appeals Tribunal.

It is an additional avenue of review for a person.

WHAT ARE REVIEWABLE DECISIONS?

Refusal of a person, greyhound or trial track registration.

A condition imposed or varied on the registration of a person, greyhound or trial track.

Suspension or cancellation of the registration of a participant, greyhound or trial track.

A decision made by a steward in relation to the greyhound racing rules.

A disqualification/warning off imposed on a participant or greyhound.

A fine imposed on a participant.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Applications must be lodged within 28 days you were given notice of GWIC's decision.

Submit a completed Application for Internal Review form, found on GWIC's website.

Include a copy of the Notice of Decision.

Include any additional information, documents or evidence which supports your application.

Note that submitting an application will not automatically stay (put on hold) the decision which is being reviewed. Reviews are conducted in writing, but if you are unable to do this, you can request a hearing via telephone or video link.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

The Internal Review is conducted by one or more reviewers who were not significantly involved in making the original decision.

Reviewers will determine if the original decision remains the same, be changed in some way or is revoked.

You will be notified of the decision in writing.

WHAT IF I AM NOT SATISFIED?

If you are not happy with the Internal Review decision, you may appeal to the Racing Appeals Tribunal within 7 days of being notified of the review decision.

Information about the Racing Appeals Tribunal can be found on GWIC's website.
