Retirement notification

Part 2: I intend to retire and transfer the greyhound to a person or organisation not registered with GWIC (Greyhounds As Pets (GAP), RSPCA, friends or family, or other third party).

Under the GWIC Rehoming Policy, if retiring to a person, they must be 18 years old and the 'Getting to know your greyhound' form must be completed and provided to them.

If you retire the greyhound to a person outside of the industry, you must have the greyhound desexed before transfer. For financial assistance with desexing, please contact Greyhound Racing NSW.

Please be aware that when a greyhound is rehomed to a person outside of the greyhound industry, GWIC will register the greyhound on the Companion Animals register in accordance with the Companion Animals Act 1998.

Was the greyhound desexed before retiring and rehoming? Yes No
